January 2015

Happy New Year!

Important Bunny Bunch News!

December was a fun month for the children at Bunny Bunch! Our visit from Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus was a HUGE success! The children had a great time preparing for the holidays by making cute decorations and putting a lot of hard work into their parent's gifts! We hope that everyone had a great holiday!

A big THANK YOU to all the families who brought in treats and helped make our Christmas party so wonderful! The children had a blast!

If you need a 2014 statement of daycare expenses please see the office.

There will be no Universal Pre-K on Monday, January 19th for Martin Luther King Day.

Friday January 23rd is Opposite Day! Wear socks on your hands, hats backwards, etc. The children are welcomed to dress silly, and they will be talking all about opposites on this day. We will also be having "Breakfast for Lunch!" We will have pancakes, eggs, apples, and bananas as a special lunch!

Friday, January 30th will be Super Bowl Dress Down Day! The children are encouraged to wear football gear to cheer on their favorite team!

Happy Birthday!!

This month we would like to wish Jackson a very happy 1st birthday, Caitlyn and Calvin a very happy 2nd birthday, Alexis a very happy 4th birthday, and Christopher, Owen, and Aiden a very happy 5th birthday!! We would also like to wish Miss Stephanie a very happy birthday this month! We hope you all have a wonderful day!

Star Teacher!

Congratulations to our Star Teacher of the month, Miss Ashley! Miss Ashley is our wonderful pre-k 3 teacher who all of the children adore! When you walk into the pre-k 3 room you will always find a clean, organized, and well decorated room. Miss Ashley always comes up with cute and creative crafts that the children truly enjoy making. Miss Ashley does a great job at making sure her children are always smiling and always having a fun time learning! She is always willing to lend a helping hand and help others out. Toddler News

As we begin the new year, we have a new month of "Winter Fun" to keep us busy in the toddler room! We start January with our fun theme of "Snowmen" which will have the children making many fun wintry crafts. They will be busy making their own "Frosty" as well as a yummy marshmallow snowman treat! During the next week, "Cold Weather Friends," the children will learn all about our buddies from the colder lands, like the penguin, polar bear, and birds, to name a few. As we start to bring January to an end, we will explore things out of this world with our "Outer Space Fun" theme. Some of the activities planned will have the toddlers creating the "Man in the Moon" and making their own constellations. We will also be spending time learning about "My 5 Senses." The kiddos will be making handprints and footprints, creating a portrait of themselves, and many fun activities as they discover all of their sense. This month is going to be a great start to the new year for the toddlers!

The toddlers will be having a couple of "Snow Days" this month. Miss Naomi will let you know as it gets closer to bring in your child's snow clothes! Please make sure you label everything with your child's name or initials. Thank you!

Pre-K 3 News

We hope that the holidays were enjoyable for all and that many new memories were made with family and friends. As we look to the start of the school year, it is truly amazing how much the children have learned as well as how much they have grown! Looking ahead, the year 2015 rings in the month of January, and a flurry of new experiences and activities to go along with our monthly theme, "Snow." The first two weeks, "Snowmen," and "Mitten Weather," will keep Miss Ashley and the children busy making snowmen and other fun snow crafts. The next weekly theme, "Cold Weather Friends," will have us listening to stories, singing songs, and learning about polar bears, penguins, and birds. Our next week, "Starry, Starry, Night," will give the children the opportunity to learn about space, the constellations in the sky, and astronauts. We will end this fun month learning about "Community Workers." The children will be learning about all of the different workers that help make up a community. They will be doing many fun crafts and activities during this week. This pre-k class is sure to have a great start to the new year!
